HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE!

You have just arrived in Brimfield and face a sea of dealers and merchandise. You are searching for Furniture and Sterling Silver. Begin your search by:

- 1. CATEGORIES: Begin your search by browsing the general category list on page 18. Choose a category and look for the heading listed alphabetically in this guide (pg 4).
- 2. DEALERS: are listed alphabetically under each category heading. Each dealer listing contains three columns of information. You will find the dealer's name, the name of the show (abbreviated) where they display, and their booth number.

Sample:

DEALER	SHOW	BOOTH
Furniture Tim's Antiques	Mays	800
Sterling & Silver Plate Slim's Silver	Quaker	1000

- 3. FINDING A DEALER: After finding a dealer in your chosen category, refer to the color show map on pages 12 & 13 for the show's location. The show schedule on page 2 is helpful as different shows open on different days and times.
- 4. OTHER HELPFUL TIPS: When you arrive at a particular show and still cannot find the dealer or merchandise you are looking for, try asking the show promoter or a fellow dealer. They can be very helpful. Remember that you can do a more detailed category search on BrimfieldExchange.com from the comfort of your home.

General Information: During Brimfield week BrimfieldExchange operates an information building located across from May's Antique Market on Route 20, and provides internet access, maps and complimentary trade publications.

Another View on Brimfield's Future by Gary Sobmers

In response to author Bob Wyss' article about the future of Brimfield and his thoughtful suggestions of ways to improve the event (Brimfield Pocket Guide July 2007), I offer a different viewpoint- the view of a 23 year veteran buyer and seller at what I consider the greatest show on earth.

Brimfield is important. Yes, it is very important.

There are three basic reasons people buy antiques and collectibles- for nostalgia, decoration, and investment. Brimfield satisfies all three needs.

Brimfield is nostalgic. When people drive into town, adrenaline surges through their systems as their minds race with excitement about the possibilities, their past treasure finds, and their desire to get onto the fields immediately. Nostalgia is a feeling one gets about something and material objects are ways to remember those feelings. Nostalgic items are prevalent in Brimfield as vendors know that emotional triggers to buy often seal the deal.

Brimfield is decorative. Acquiring antiques and collectibles to decorate a home or business has increasingly become a substantial revenue aspect of Brimfield. Everyone from Martha Stewart, Oprah, and Barbra Streisand has come to find the treasure necessary to satisfy their decorating schemes. Theme restaurants have scoured the fields to decorate their franchises coast to coast. Now, the high-end design stores, clothing designers, and style-setters also frequent the fields for items and inspiration. Savvy vendors use their own sense of decorative

DIRECTIONS TO BRIMFIELD

From the East: Boston, Providence and Worcester From Boston and points east take the Mass Turnpike (Rt. 90) west to Exit 9 (Sturbridge). Follow Route 20 west to Brimfield, about 7 miles to the only set of traffic lights. From the lights in Brimfield center, continue west. The markets begin just after the big white church on the right. BrimfieldExchange is located in our show booth, about 0.4 miles on the left (South) side of Route 20, opposite May's Antique Market, and between J & J and Hertan's. Paid parking is available along route 20 on both sides of the road. The Brimfield antique shows (markets) extend about 1 mile west of the church along route 20.

From the West: Albany and Springfield From Springfield and points west take the Mass Turnpike (Rt. 90) east to exit 8 (Palmer). After exiting the toll, turn right on route 32 south. Proceed 0.6 miles to next set of lights in Palmer. From the lights turn left on route 20 east toward Brimfield, and proceed about 6.8 miles to the end of the divided highway. The markets(shows) begin at a little over 7.0 miles and extend east for about a mile. BrimfieldExchange is located in our show booth, about 7.8 miles on the right (South) side of Route 20, opposite May's Antique Market, and between J & J and Hertan's. Paid parking is available along route 20 on both sides of the road.

From the South: NYC and Hartford Take route I-95 north to New Haven, then 91 north to Hartford. Pick up I-84 east in Hartford. Follow I-84 east to the Sturbridge exit for route 20 west, or from I-84 follow route 32 north to route 19 north to Brimfield light and turn left (west). From here follow east directions above.

style to attract and sell to these buyers.

Brimfield is a gold mine. The main reason people are in the fields at dawn and remain until sunset is because there is always the possibility that a treasure will present itself and a profit will be made. The people who scour the fields buying for resale can outnumber those buying for themselves. The race to find the investment grade item is the hardest run, however, investment merchandise in the categories of furniture, art pottery, silver, pop culture, and paper can definitely be found.

Many items bought at Brimfield can change hands 2 or 3 times before the end of the week, and are sometimes sold by phone or online. New technology makes it easier to find a treasure, photograph it, send a picture to a buyer, and sell it, sometimes even before buying it!

As important as Brimfield is to current buyers and sellers, Brimfield must attract “new money” in order to grow. Brimfield show promoters would do well to consider the three consumer niches outlined above in order to attract new buyers and sellers, and to grow the “young” audience to meet the decline of the aging generations. Young buyers and sellers are out there. They will only find out about Brimfield with the proper reach into their world.

As Bob Wyss noted, Brimfield has plenty of opinions, so I will also add mine:

1. I agree with Bob on improving the toilet situation throughout the entire show.
2. Brimfield advertising and promotional dollars need to focus on the mainstream media to attract new audiences. Often show promoters advertise to the same people; they ought to spend their dollars in new ways.
3. Brimfield is a great story/event. Show promoters need to define a strong positive message to attract television producers, magazine contributors, and editors who ultimately promote Brimfield by their work. This is a great source of free advertising.
4. Brimfield is a great “weather” story. Meteorologists should be notified of this huge outdoor event involving 3000-5000 vendors and 25,000-50,000 buyers. They could offer free publicity from Albany to Boston and from New York to Burlington. The weathermen are also doing a good service for those thinking about driving to the event.
5. Finally, I disagree with the notion of getting rid of the July show. This show is important and it would not be productive to cancel it. This past July show was actually better than our May show and our “best” July show in 23 years. In fact, designer Tommy Hilfiger sent a huge crew to Brimfield to buy for him personally and for his stores’ décor. They filled a truck; a perfect example of “new money” coming to Brimfield, even in July!

Just my opinion... Gary Sohmers

*Gary Sohmers is a veteran Brimfield dealer, exhibiting for the past 23 years. Currently his booth is located right on Route 20 in Brimfield. His website is www.allcollectors.com. Gary has been in the antiques business for 35 years, working in radio all over the country, and appearing as an appraiser in Collectibles and Toys on the very popular PBS program “Antiques Roadshow.”*
